

THE PARISH MAGAZINE

The Parish Church of King Charles the Martyr

The Parish Magazine

What is the Parish Magazine?

The Parish Magazine is produced monthly and is available to members of the church on the last Sunday of the preceding month. Some subscribers receive their copy by post.

The Magazine includes a great wealth of material, including information about forthcoming events at King Charles, news about church members and of other general interest, reviews of events and activities that have taken place, letters, interviews, articles, book reviews, prayers, quizzes and an activity page for children. It aims to include material of a both a serious and light-hearted nature, and seeks to appeal to all members of the church.

The Parish Magazine is edited by Sue Clark, typeset by Kathy Clark and printed by Marian Sowter in the Parish Office.

What is worthwhile or enjoyable about this activity?

Producing a publication that reflects the life and interests of King Charles and is a truly interesting read. The Magazine is an important means of communication within the Church, and hopefully helps people to get to know each other better.

Who should I contact to find out more or to become involved?

Sue Clark, the Editor, is always pleased to receive suggestions and offers of material for inclusion in the Magazine.
